SEPTEMBERFEST

Sunday, September 25

This new trip brings us a taste of fall!

☐

Step back in time at Old Sturbridge Village Apple Days as costumed interpreters and village historians recreate harvest time in the 1830's. Stroll through the entire recreated 19th century village at your leisure. You might choose to visit a blacksmith shop, schoolhouse, country store or printing office.

Lunch will follow at the charming, historic Publick House. Since 1771, the Publick House has welcomed guests with open hearths and Yankee hospitality.

The last stop of the day will be at a farm stand for those who want to bring home some tasty treats. A bag of apples is included for all.

NEWPORT PLAYHOUSE

Sunday, November 6 $88 ☐ ☐

This trip to Newport Playhouse includes an extensive buffet followed by a performance of the Neil Simon play "Last of the Red Hot Lovers". Barney, a middle-aged, married man who is overworked and overweight, wants to join the sexual revolution before it's too late.
